DRUGS, CHEMICALS, &c.
Take Simmons' Liver Regulator
For all diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Spleen.
WILL CURE
DYSPEPSIA.
I MUST OWN that your Simmons' Liver Regulator fully deserves the popularity it has attained. As a family medicine it has no equal.
It cured my wife of a melany I had counted incurable —that wretched of our An-
-erican people, Dyspepsia.
A. E. P. ALBERT,
Professor in Nicholas Public School, Parish of Tarrebonne, La.

MALARIOUS FEVERS.
You are at liberty to use my name in praise of your Regulator as prepared by you, and recommend it to every one as the best preventive for Fever and Ague in the world. I plant in southwestern Georgia, near Albany, Georgia, and must say that it has done more good on my plantation among my negroes than any medicine I ever used. It superseded quinine if taken in time. Yours, &c., Hon. B. H. Hill, Ga.

CHILDREN'S Liver Regulator—Any other remedy for Malarial Diseases among children, and it has a large sale in this section of Georgia.—W. M.
Russell, Albany, Ga.

TESTIMONY OF THE CHIEF JUSTICE
OF GEORGIA.—I have used Simmons' Liver Regulator for constipation of my bowels, caused by a temporary derangement of the liver, for the last three or four years, and always, when used according to the directions, with decided benefit. I think it is a good medicine for the derangement of the liver—at least such has been my personal experience in the use of it.
HIRAM WARNER,
Chief Justice of Georgia.

SICK HEADACHE.
EDITORIAL.—We have tested its virtues, personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw.
We have tried forty other remedies before Simmons' Liver Regulator, but none of them gave us more than temporary relief. But the Regulator not only relieved but cured us.—[Editor Telegraph and Messenger, Macon, Ga.]

COLIC AND GRUBBS IN HORSES.
My life during the last twenty years of my life has been spent in the raising of horses, and I have found that Colic, Grubbs, &c., gave me a great deal of trouble.
I have heard of your Regulator as a cure for the above diseases, I concluded to try it. After trying one package in March I found it to cure in every instance. It is only to be tried to prove what I have said in its praise. I can send you certificates from Augusta, Clinton and Macon as to the cure of horses.

HOW CAVALRY CAN CROSS BROAD RIVERS.
The Galigani states that Lieutenant Zubovitz, of the Austrian army, whose ride from Vienna to Paris may be remembered, has just performed the exploit of crossing the Danube at the former city, where the river is very wide, mounted on a horse provided with a floating apparatus, of which he is the inventor. Although the water was very high, M. Zubovitz would not be dissuaded from making the trial, and rode on the quay at about four in the afternoon. The India rubber air reservoirs which were to keep the horse afloat were attached to the saddle on each side. The rider wore an ordinary hunting dress with high waterproof boots, and did not carry with him any life-saving apparatus. The animal at first refused to enter the river, but the rider soon overcame his resistance and he plunged in, and sank until only his head was left above the surface.
The crowd, who lined the quays and had been looking on anxiously, called to him to retreat, but he spurred on, and, carried away by the rapid current, was soon in the middle of the stream, rising and sinking in the middle of last, seven minutes after leaving the right bank, he touched the left side under the arch of the bridge and was received with loud cheers. He was immediately driven to a neighboring hotel to change his clothes, while his orderly gave the horse a sharp gallop to warm it after its bath. The object of this experiment was to show that with this apparatus wide rivers may be crossed by cavalry without bridges or fords.

A YOUNG LADY'S DREAM.—A beautiful young lady of "sweet sixteen," residing within a mile of St. John's Church, dreamed for three consecutive nights that she was severely bitten by a vicious dog. In her vision she saw the horrid brute as plainly as if she was wide awake; saw his stumpy tail and his hideous jaws; heard the snapping of his terrible teeth as they tore bits of dainty flesh from her albaster arms and palpitating bosom. The dream made such a deep impression upon the young lady that she did not venture out of the house for several days. Day before yesterday she took a short walk, and had not proceeded further than a block or two when the very dog of her dream jumped over a high fence and attacked her in a most ferocious manner. Instinctively she placed her hands over her eyes and turned her face from the ravenous beast, and thus saved her beauty from disfigurement.
The dog seized hold of her skirt, tore it into shreds, and found himself face to face with a formidable apparatus called a battle. This he
